1) DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS

CEMEX Latam Holdings, S.A., was constituted under the laws of Spain on April 17, 2012 as capital stock corporation (S.A.) for an undefined period of time. The entity is a subsidiary of CEMEX España, S.A. ("CEMEX España"), also organized under the laws of Spain, as well as an indirect subsidiary of CEMEX, S.A.B. de C.V., a public stock corporation with variable capital (S.A.B. de C.V.) organized under the laws of Mexico. The statutory purpose and main activities of CEMEX Latam Holdings, S.A. consist of the subscription, acquisition, tenure, enjoyment, management or sale of securities and share holdings, as well as the management and administration of securities representing the stockholders' equity (own funds) of non-resident entities in Spanish territory through the corresponding organization of material and human resources. Based on its statutory purpose, CEMEX Latam Holdings, S.A. is the indirect holding company (parent) of entities whose main activities located in Colombia, Panama, Costa Rica, Nicaragua, Guatemala, El Salvador and Brazil, are all oriented to the construction industry through the production, marketing, distribution and sale of cement, ready-mix concrete, aggregates and other construction materials. The common shares of CEMEX Latam Holdings, S.A., are listed in the Colombian Stock Exchange (Bolsa de Valores de Colombia, S.A. or "BVC") under the symbol CLH.

The term the "Parent Company" used in these accompanying notes to the financial statements refers to CEMEX Latam Holdings, S.A. without its subsidiaries. The terms the "Company" or "CEMEX Latam" refer to CEMEX Latam Holdings, S.A. together with its consolidated subsidiaries. When the term "CEMEX" is used, refers to CEMEX, S.A.B. de C.V. and/or some of its subsidiaries, which are not direct or indirect subsidiaries of the Parent Company. The issuance of these consolidated financial statements was authorized by the management and the Board of Director of the Parent Company on July 27, 2016, prior favorable report of the Audit Committee.

2) SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The accounting policies applied to these consolidated condensed financial statements as of June 30, 2016, are the same as those applied in the consolidated financial statements as of December 31, 2015.

2A) BASIS OF PRESENTATION AND DISCLOSURE

The consolidated condensed financial statements and the accompanying notes were prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") effective as of June 30, 2016, as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB"), as well as with the International Accounting Standard 34, Interim Financial Statements.

The consolidated condensed balance sheets as of June 30, 2016 and as of December 31, 2015, as well as the consolidated condensed income statements, the consolidated condensed statements of comprehensive income, the consolidated condensed cash flows statements and the consolidated condensed statements of changes in stockholders' equity for the six-month periods ended June 30, 2016 and 2015, as well as their related disclosures included in the notes to the financial statements, have not been audited.

The IFRS consolidated financial statements are presented quarterly to the securities and exchange regulator in Colombia, due to the registration of the Parent Company's shares with the aforementioned authority for their trading on the BVC.

Presentation currency and definition of terms

The presentation currency of the consolidated financial statements is the dollar of the United States of America ("United States"), which is also the functional currency of the Parent Company considering that, is the main currency in which the Parent Company realizes its operations and settles its obligations. The amounts in the financial statements and the accompanying notes are presented in thousands of dollars of the United States, except when specific references are made to other currency, according with the following paragraph, or different measuring unit like millions, earnings per share, prices per share and/or exchange rates. For convenience of the reader, all amounts disclosed in these notes to the financial statements, mainly in connection with tax or legal proceedings (notes 17B and 21), which are originated in jurisdictions which currencies are different to the dollar, are presented in dollar equivalents as of June 30, 2016. Consequently, despite any change in the original currency, such dollar amounts will fluctuate over time due to changes in exchange rates. These dollar translations should not be construed as representations that the dollar amounts were, could have been, or could be converted at the indicated exchange rates. Foreign currency translations as of June 30, 2016 and 2015 were determined using the closing and average exchange rates, as correspond, presented in the table of exchange rates included in note 2D.

When reference is made to "\$" or dollar, it means the dollar of the United States, when reference is made to " $\mathcal{E}$ " or euros, it means the currency in circulation in a significant number of European Union ("EU") countries. When reference is made to " $\mathcal{E}$ " or colones, it means colones of the República de Costa Rica ("Costa Rica"). When reference is made to "R\$" or reales, it means reales of the República Federativa de Brazil ("Brazil"). When reference is made to "Col\$" or pesos, it means pesos of the República de Colombia ("Colombia"). When reference is made to "C\$" or quetzales, it means quetzals of the República de Guatemala ("Guatemala").

Income statements

The line item "Other expenses, net" in the consolidated condensed income statement consists primarily of revenues and expenses not directly related to the Company's main activities, or which are of an unusual and/or non-recurring nature, such as results on disposal of assets, recoveries from insurance companies, as well as certain severance payments during restructuring processes, among others (note 5).

Statements of cash flows

For the six-month periods ended June 30, 2016 and 2015, the consolidated condensed statements of cash flows present cash inflows and outflows, excluding unrealized foreign exchange effects, as well as the following transaction that did not represent sources or uses of cash:

- For the periods ended June 30, 2016 and 2015, the increase in accounts payable to related parts to long-term $15,785 and $15,418, respectively, relative to the capitalization of interest on the debt with CEMEX companies.
- For the periods ended June 30, 2016 and 2015 the net increase in other equity reserves of $801 and $742, respectively, and the increase in additional paid-in capital of $4 in 2016 and $188 in 2015, were incurred in connection with executive stock-based compensation (note 18B and 18D).

Going Concern

As of June 30, 2016, current liabilities, which include accounts payable to CEMEX companies of approximately $300,935 (note 9), exceeded current assets in $269,269. The Parent Company's Board of Directors has approved these consolidated condensed financial statements as of June 30, 2016 under the principle of going concern, considering that the Company will generate sufficient cash flows to enable it to meet any liquidity risk in the short term. If it is deemed necessary, the Board of Directors of the Parent Company considers that management would succeed in renegotiating the maturity of some short-term payables to such CEMEX' companies. For the six month period ended June 30, 2016 and 2015, CEMEX Latam generated net cash flows from operations, after interest expense and income taxes, of approximately $150,051 and $162,026 respectively.

2B) PRINCIPLES OF CONSOLIDATION

The consolidated financial statements include those of CEMEX Latam Holdings, S.A. and those of the entities, in which the Parent Company exercises control, by means of which the Parent Company is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the investee. Among other factors, control is evidenced when the Parent Company: a) holds directly or through subsidiaries, more than 50% of an entity's common stock; b) has the power, directly or indirectly, to govern the administrative, financial and operating policies of an entity, or c) is the primary receptor of the risks and rewards. Balances and operations between related parties are eliminated in consolidation. Each subsidiary is a legally responsible separate entity and maintains custody of its own financial resources.

Changes in the participation of parent company in a subsidiary do not result in a loss of control are accounted for as transactions with owners in their capacity as owners. Therefore, adjustments to non-controlling interests, which are based on a proportionate amount of the net assets of the subsidiary, not result in adjustments to goodwill and / or recognition of gains or losses in the income statement.

2C) USE OF ESTIMATES AND MANAGEMENT JUDGMENT

The preparation of consolidated condensed financial statement in accordance with IFRS requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities as of the date of reporting, as well as the revenues and expenses of the period. These assumptions are continuously reviewed using available information. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

The main items subject to estimates and assumptions include, among others, impairment tests of long-lived assets, allowances for doubtful accounts and inventories, recognition of deferred income tax assets, as well as the measurement of financial instruments and the assets and liabilities related to employee benefits. Significant judgment by management is required to appropriately assess the amounts of these assets and liabilities.

2D) FOREIGN CURRENCY TRANSACTIONS AND TRANSLATION OF FOREIGN ENTITIES' FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The most significant closing exchange rates per U.S. dollar as of June 30, 2016 and December 31, 2015 for balance sheet purposes, and the average exchange rates per U.S. dollar for income statements purposes for the six-month periods ended June 30, 2016 and 2015, are as follows:

2E) COST OF SALES, ADMINISTRATIVE AND SELLING EXPENSES AND DISTRIBUTION EXPENSES

CEMEX Latam is involved in several ongoing tax proceedings which have not required the recognition of accruals since the Company does not consider probable adverse considering the evidence at its disposal. Nonetheless, the Company cannot assure to obtain a favorable resolution. As of June 30, 2016, a summary of relevant facts of the most significant proceedings in progress, or which were resolved during the reported periods, were as follows:

Colombia

- On April 1, 2011, the Colombian Tax Authority (Dirección de Impuestos Nacionales or the "DIAN") notified CEMEX Colombia of a special proceeding rejecting certain deductions taken by CEMEX Colombia in its 2009 tax return. The DIAN assessed an increase in the income tax payable by CEMEX Colombia for an amount in Colombian pesos equivalent to approximately $29 million and imposed a penalty in Colombian pesos for an amount equivalent to approximately $46 million, both considering the exchange rate as of June 30, 2016. The DIAN argues that certain expenses are not deductible for fiscal purposes because they are not linked to direct revenues recorded in the same fiscal year, without considering that future revenue will be taxed under the income tax law in Colombia. CEMEX Colombia responded to the special proceeding on June 25, 2011. On December 15, 2011, the DIAN issued its final resolution, which confirmed the information in the special proceeding. CEMEX Colombia appealed such resolution on February 15, 2012. On January 17, 2013, the DIAN confirmed CEMEX Colombia its final resolution. On May 10, 2013, CEMEX Colombia appealed the final resolution before the Administrative Tribunal of Cundinamarca, which was admitted on June 21, 2013. On July 14, 2014, CEMEX Colombia was notified about an adverse resolution to its appeal, which confirms the official liquidation notified by the DIAN. On July 22, 2014, CEMEX Colombia filed an appeal against this resolution before the Colombian State Council (Consejo de Estado). On September 17, 2015, CEMEX Colombia presented arguments in second instance under this proceeding. Currently, the process is waiting for judgment since October 7, 2015. At this stage of the proceeding, as of June 30, 2016, CEMEX Latam does not consider probable an adverse resolution in this proceeding, however is difficult to assess with certainty the likelihood of an adverse result, but if adversely resolved, this proceeding could have a material adverse impact on CEMEX Latam's results of operations, liquidity or financial position.
- On September 13, 2012, the DIAN notified CEMEX Colombia an ordinary request for the review of its income tax return for the fiscal year 2011, in connection with the amortization of goodwill of Lomas del Tempisque S.R.L., which was considered tax deductible in such tax return. On October 5, 2012, CEMEX Colombia rejected the DIAN's arguments and requested that the case would be dismissed. On August 9, 2013, CEMEX Colombia received a verification notice from the DIAN, obtaining the faculty to review the aforementioned income tax return, which is currently being audited. Additionally, on June 28, 2013, CEMEX Colombia requested an amendment project in order to increase the amount of tax receivable, which was accepted on September 6, 2013. At this stage of the proceeding, as of June 30, 2016, CEMEX Latam does not consider probable an adverse resolution in this proceeding, however is difficult to assess with certainty the likelihood of an adverse result, but if adversely resolved, this proceeding could have a material adverse impact on CEMEX Latam's results of operations, liquidity or financial position.
- The municipality of San Luis Tolima (the "Municipality") has issued requirements to CEMEX Colombia related with the payment of the industry and commerce tax (impuesto de industria y comercio) in such municipality for the fiscal years from 1999 to 2013. The Municipality argues that the tax is generated as a result of CEMEX Colombia's industrial activities in such jurisdiction. CEMEX Colombia considers that its activity in this municipality is strictly mining and therefore pays royalties for mineral extraction in this jurisdiction, based on the applicable law, which bans municipalities from collecting the industry and commerce tax, when the amount payable of royalties is equal or exceeds to the amount of such tax. CEMEX Colombia has duly submitted legal resources appealing these requirements. The combined amount of the proceedings in Colombian pesos is equivalent to approximately $23 million, considering the exchange rate as of June 30, 2016, of which, approximately $9 million represent purported tax and $14 million corresponds to penalties for inaccuracy. On July 18, 2013, the Colombian State Council issued a final resolution in favor of CEMEX Colombia in the process for the fiscal years 2009 and 2010, which the Municipality appealed on December 13, 2013. In addition, on May 15, 2014, first instance resolutions against CEMEX Colombia meso is equivalent to approximately $1 million, both as of June 30, 2016. On May 28, 2014, CEMEX Colombia appealed this resolution before the Colombian pesos equivalent to approximately $1 million, both as of June 30, 2016. On May 28, 2014, CEMEX Colombia appealed this resolution before the Colombian pesos.

On December 10, 2014, the Municipality issued an official settlement request with respect to the fiscal year 2011, for amounts in Colombian pesos equivalent for this year to approximately $1 million of purported tax and approximately $1 million of penalties, both considering the exchange rate as of June 30, 2016. On January 6, 2015, CEMEX Colombia filed an appeal to the official settlement. The Municipality should have responded to the appeal lodged no later than January 6, 2016. Considering that the Company did not receive any response, on January 26, 2016, CEMEX Colombia reported to the Municipality the recognition of the positive administrative silence and requested a copy of the file, which was submitted and whereas there is evidence that there was not any notification by the Municipality to CEMEX Colombia or its legal representative in connection with the resolution of the appeal for reconsideration. Therefore, CEMEX Colombia currently expects the Municipality to decide on CEMEX Colombia's request of recognition of the positive administrative silence. At this stage, CEMEX Colombia considers that cash outflows in relation to this litigation are not probable.

On March 25, 2015, the Municipality issued a special requirement related to fiscal year 2012, considering the same arguments mentioned in the proceedings of previous years described above. The amount of purported tax in Colombian pesos for this year is equivalent to $2 million and a penalty for inaccuracy in Colombian pesos equivalent to approximately $2 million considering the exchange rate as of June 30, 2016. CEMEX responded to the request within the legal deadline on May 22, 2015. The Municipality should have issued the official liquidation no later than January 4, 2016. Considering similarly that CEMEX Colombia did not receive any notification of the official liquidation review, during January 2016, CEMEX Colombia requested a copy of the file, was submitted and whereas there is evidence that there was not any notification by the Municipality to CEMEX Colombia or its legal representative in connection with the official liquidation. Therefore, CEMEX Colombia currently expects the Municipality to decide on the matter.

As part of the same proceedings with the Municipality mentioned above, on December 10, 2015, a first instance resolution was issued in favor of CEMEX Colombia for the fiscal year 2008. On March 28, 2016, an edict was issued confirming the first instance resolution that rejected the purported deficiencies of CEMEX Colombia and ratified the resolution of the industry and commerce tax for fiscal year 2008. CEMEX Colombia currently expects the Municipality to appeal the decision.

In addition, on March 25, 2016, CEMEX Colombia received a special request for fiscal year 2013 by means of which the Municipality requires an increase in the industry and commerce tax for an amount in Colombian pesos equivalent to approximately $2 million and a penalty for inaccuracy for an amount in Colombian pesos equivalent to approximately $4 million, both considering the exchange rate as of June 30, 2016. CEMEX Colombia responded this special requirement during the legal opportunity.

On June 13, 2016, CEMEX Colombia received a statement of objections by the Municipality for not providing information, which proposes a penalty for an amount in Colombian pesos equivalent to approximately $0.25 million. CEMEX Colombia had one month to provide disclaimers and/or provide evidence in this process, consequently, on July 1, 2016, CEMEX Colombia presented its response under this proceeding.

Costa Rica

In January 2011, the Costa Rican Tax Department (Dirección General de Tributación or the "Tax Department") informed the beginning of audits for the 2008 fiscal year in CEMEX (Costa Rica), S.A. ("CEMEX Costa Rica"), which included income tax, payroll withholding tax and sales tax. On August 9, 2013, the Tax Department issued a provisional regularization proposal for an amount in Costa Rican colones equivalent to approximately $9 million, considering the exchange rate as of June 30, 2016, which includes tax, interest and penalties. On August 23, 2013, CEMEX Costa Rica filed a legal resource against the provisional regularization proposal, arguing that the action has been time barred and rejecting the proposed adjustments considering that CEMEX Costa Rica has acted in accordance with the applicable tax regulations. On September 30, 2013, CEMEX Costa Rica was notified of a settlement procedure by means of which the Tax Department dismissed the arguments presented by CEMEX Costa Rica and ratified the resolution of the provisional regularization proposal. On November 7, 2013, CEMEX Costa Rica filed a legal resource to revoke the settlement procedure, which should have been resolved by the Tax Department within a 3 month period, which the Tax Department could extend without consequence, except for the suspension of the calculation of interest. On September 24, 2014, the Tax Department notified CEMEX Costa Rica of the annulment of the settlement procedure and the resolutions previously issued considering a unconstitutionality resource challenge accepted by the Constitutional Court of Costa Rica (the "Constitutional Court") against the article of the tax regulation which served as the basis for issuing the settlement procedure. Nonetheless, simultaneously, the Tax Department notified CEMEX Costa Rica a new settlement procedure and sanctioning resolutions in accordance with the new legal requirements of the new code of rules and tax procedures. Following the notification of the new settlement procedure, the Constitutional Court clarified that the Tax Department should not issue new settlement procedures until the Constitutional Court would issue a rule on the constitutionality of the article of the tax regulation. On October 10, 2014, the Tax Department notified CEMEX Costa Rica the cancellation of the new (and last) settlement procedure and the corresponding sanctioning resolutions, arguing that the Constitutional Court admitted an unconstitutionality action brought by a third party against the payment obligation or guaranty in a tax proceeding, prior to its defense, which is provided for in the new tax regulation; suspending its application until the Constitutional Court rules on the merits of this action. In view of the above, the Tax Department cannot issue new settlement procedures or sanctioning resolutions until the Constitutional Court resolves the aforementioned unconstitutionality action. Therefore, the tax proceeding initiated against CEMEX Costa Rica was annulled and the issuance of the settlement procedure against CEMEX Costa Rica was suspended. As of June 30 2016, there are no settlement procedures regarding the audit for the 2008 fiscal year against CEMEX Costa Rica.

The estimated selling price of the project is for an amount of approximately Col$133 billion ($45 million). The houses will be delivered gradually as they are concluded. In connection with these projects, as of June 30, 2016, customers have made advance payments deposited with a trustee agent for an amount of approximately Col $47 billion ($16 million) that partially guarantee payment for the houses, and which will be released to CEMEX Colombia as houses are delivered to the satisfaction of such customers. As of June 30, 2016, these housing projects have a combined stage of completion of approximately 20.6%.
- On July 30, 2012, CEMEX signed a 10-year strategic agreement with IBM, which includes CEMEX Latam and its subsidiaries, pursuant to which IBM will provide business processes services and information technology ("IT"). Moreover, IBM will provide business consulting to detect and promote sustainable improvements in CEMEX's profitability. The 10-year contract assigned to IBM is expected to generate cost reductions to CEMEX, measured in respect to costs previously incurred in such activities, to the extent that processes efficiencies would be achieved during such 10-year period. The services from IBM include: data processing services (back office) in finance, accounting and human resources; as well as IT infrastructure services, support and maintenance of IT applications in the different countries in which CEMEX operates, including CEMEX Latam and its subsidiaries. The cost to be incurred by the Company with IBM under this agreement is of approximately $4

20) CONTINGENCIES

21A) CONTINGENT LIABILITIES RESULTING FROM LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

CEMEX Latam is involved in various significant legal processes, other than the tax-related procedures which are described in note 17B, the resolutions of which are deemed probable and imply cash outflows or the delivery of other resources owned by CEMEX Latam. Therefore, certain provisions have been recorded in the financial statements, representing the best estimate of payments thereof. As a result, CEMEX Latam considers that there will not be significant payments in excess of the amounts already recognized.

As of June 30, 2016, the only significant case considered individually is as follows:

In 1999, several companies belonging to the Laserna family filed an extra-contractual civil liability claim against CEMEX Colombia, by means of which the plaintiffs demanded compensation for alleged damages caused to their land with effects on costs and lower production of their rice crops as a result of solid pollutants expelled by the chimneys of the "Buenos Aires" and "Caracolito" cement production plants in the department of Tolima. In January 2004, the Fourth Circuit Civil Court of Ibague issued a resolution ordering CEMEX Colombia a payment in favor of the plaintiff's equivalent to approximately $9 million. CEMEX Colombia appealed this resolution. On September 10, 2010, the Superior Court of Ibague fully revoked the resolution accepting the defense arguments of CEMEX Colombia. As of June 30, 2016, there is a provision associated with this litigation for approximately $9 million (note 16) considering the exchange rate at the same date and the process is in the Supreme Court of Justice, where the appeal resource filed by the plaintiffs is being processed.

21B) OTHERS CONTINGENCIES RESULTING FROM LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

As of June 30, 2016, CEMEX Latam is involved in various legal proceedings, in addition to those related to tax matters (note 17B), which have not required the recognition of accruals based on the judgment elements at its disposal. The Company considers the likelihood of an adverse resolution to be remote; nonetheless, it cannot assure that a favorable resolution in these proceedings will be obtained. The disclosure of facts of the most significant proceedings with a quantification of the potential loss is as follows:

Market related proceedings

- On September 5, 2013, the Colombian Industry and Commerce Authority (Superintendencia de Industria y Comercio or the "SIC") issued a resolution pursuant to which the SIC opened an investigation against five cement companies and 14 directors of those companies, including CEMEX Colombia, its former legal representative and the current President of CEMEX Colombia, for allegedly breaching rules which prohibit: a) to limit free competition and/or determining or maintaining unfair prices; b) direct or indirect price fixing agreements; and c) any market sharing agreements between producers or distributors. In connection with the 14 executives under investigation, the SIC may sanction any individual who collaborated, facilitated, authorized, executed or tolerated behavior that violates free competition rules. On October 7, 2013, CEMEX Colombia responded the resolution and submitted evidence in its relief. If the alleged infringements are substantiated, aside from any measures that could be ordered to remediate the alleged practices, penalties may be imposed by the SIC against each company being declared in breach of the competition rules for an equivalent amount in Colombian pesos as of June 30, 2016 of up to $22 million for each violation, and an equivalent of up to $0.4 million against those individuals found responsible of collaborating, facilitating, authorizing, executing or tolerating behavior that violates free competition rules. It is expected that in during the course of the first quarter of 2016, the Superintendent Delegate for Competition Protection will issue a non-binding report of the investigation, which could provide a recommendation to impose sanctions or to close the investigation. CEMEX Latam considers the likelihood of an adverse resolution to be remote; nonetheless, is not able to assess with certainty the likelihood of the SIC imposing any measures and/or penalties against CEMEX Colombia, but if imposed, they could have a material adverse effect on the Company's results of operations, liquidity
- On April 22, 2015, CEMEX Costa Rica, was notified by the Competition Authority (Dirección de Apoyo a la Competencia) of a request for information issued by the Ministry of Economy, Industry and Trade of Costa Rica in connection with an study in the cement market that would allow the evaluation of price changes as well as to identify possible distortions and market barriers among other issues in such country. The aforementioned information request relates to volumes, prices and production costs from 2010 to date. The Company delivered the requested information as of June 5, 2015 and collaborates as necessary with the study mentioned. As of June 30, 2016, the Company has not being informed of any recent developments in connection with this market study.
- On March 7, 2016, CEMEX Costa Rica was notified by the Competition Authority by order of the Ministry of Economy, Industry and Trade of Costa Rica, of a request for information in order to initiate a customary preliminary investigation, to verify the existence of evidence in anticompetitive practices, determine market shares in the cement market and document the geographical areas where cement companies operate. This request for information was issued as a result of a claim issued by a third party. The company delivered the information requested on March 18, 2016 and works as necessary in relation to the aforementioned requirement.

Environmental proceedings

- On June 5, 2010, the District of Bogota's Environmental Secretary (Secretaría Distrital de Ambiente de Bogotá or the "Environmental Secretary"), ordered the suspension of CEMEX Colombia's mining activities at El Tunjuelo quarry, located in Bogotá, as well as those of other aggregates producers in the same area. The Environmental Secretary alleged that during the past 60 years CEMEX Colombia and the other companies have illegally changed the course of the Tunjuelo River, have used the percolating waters without permission and have improperly used the edge of the river for mining activities. In connection with the injunction, on June 5, 2010, CEMEX Colombia received a notification from the Environmental Secretary informing the initiation of proceedings to impose fines against CEMEX Colombia based on the above mentioned alleged environmental violations. CEMEX Colombia responded to the injunction by requesting that it be revoked based on the fact that the mining activities at El Tunjuelo quarry are supported by the authorizations required by the applicable environmental laws and that all the environmental impact statements submitted by CEMEX Colombia have been reviewed and permanently authorized by the Ministry of Environment and Sustainable Development (Ministerio de Ambiente y Desarrollo Sostenible). On June 11, 2010, the local authorities in Bogotá, in compliance with the Environmental Secretary's decision, sealed off the mine to machinery and prohibited the removal of CEMEX's aggregates inventory. Although there is not an official quantification of the possible fine, the Environmental Secretary has publicly declared that the fine could be up to the equivalent amount in Colombian pesos as of June 30, 2016 of approximately $103 million. The temporary injunction has not compromise the production and supply of ready-mix concrete to the Company's clients in Colombia. At this stage, CEMEX Latam considers the likelihood of an adverse resolution to be remote; nonetheless, is not able to assess with certainty the likelihood of an adverse result or potential damages which could be borne by CEMEX Colombia. An adverse resolution in this case could have a material adverse impact on CEMEX Latam's results of operations, liquidity or financial condition.
- On March 11, 2015, 14 members of the surrounding communities of the cement plant in Panama filed a claim against Cemento Bayano, S.A ("Cemento Bayano"), subsidiary of the Company in such country, for alleged breach of environmental regulations as a result of the non-metallic mineral exploration in its quarries. Moreover, they requested the review of the environmental impact' studies that protect new raw materials' quarries of the plant. These community members are being assisted by non-governmental organizations and environmentalist groups aimed to impose unfounded penalties to the Company and to try to encourage the cancellation of the new quarries' environmental impact studies. By ruling from April 13, 2015, it was resolved to declare that the allegations in connection with water pollution, erosion control, air quality, impact control of protected areas be worthy of investigation. Such resolution was notified on April 27, 2015; on May 5, 2015, a motion for reconsideration was presented thereof. The Environmental Authority (Administración Regional Metropolitana del Ministerio de Ambiente) resolved not to support the motion for reconsideration and continued the investigation. On June 15 and 16, 2015 the Environmental Authority conducted a physical inspection is corroborated that are not evidence of the allegations.

In connection with the aforementioned inspection to Cemento Bayano, pursuant to the Technical Inspection Report issued on July 2, 2015, it was concluded that the purported claims were not evidenced during the physical inspection. By means of an edict posted from December 23 to December 24, 2015, the Environmental Authority notified Cemento Bayano a ten working days period to present its allegations and exculpatory evidence. On January 11, 2016, Cemento Bayano filed the written arguments and presented evidence within the administrative process. As of June 30, 2016, the authorities have not issued any recent developments. Fines on environmental matters do not have a limit in the norm, but depend on the severity of the damage, recidivism, investments level and the economic situation of the offender. At this stage, Cemento Bayano considers remote the probability and adverse ruling; nonetheless, is not able to asses with certainty the likelihood of an adverse result or potential damages which could be determined to the Company. An adverse resolution in this case could have a material adverse impact on the Company's results of operations, liquidity or financial condition.

In the ordinary course of business, the Company is subject to extensive laws and regulations on environmental issues in each of the jurisdictions in which it operates. These laws and regulations impose increasingly stringent environmental protection standards regarding air pollutant emissions, wastewater discharges, the use and handling of hazardous materials or waste disposal practices and the remediation of pollution or environmental damage. Among other things, these laws and regulations expose the Company to a risk of substantial environmental costs and responsibilities, including responsibilities associated with divested assets and past activities and, in some cases, to the acts and omissions of prior owners or operators of a property or plant. Also, in some jurisdictions, certain environmental laws and regulations impose obligations without regard the fault or the legality of the original activity at the moment of the actions which gave rise to the responsibility.

Other proceedings

In respect to the proceedings initiated in August 2005 whereas CEMEX Colombia was indicated as a civil responsible third party in connection with the premature damages of the concrete slabs in the Main North Highway of Transmilenio's public transport system in Bogota, where it was used ready-mix concrete and flowable fill supplied by CEMEX Colombia and other members of the Colombian Association of Concrete Producers ("ASOCRETO"). The plaintiffs argue that the material supplied did not meet the quality standards offered by CEMEX Colombia and the other defendants, and that information about the qualities and properties of the products offered was insufficient and inadequate, on October 10, 2012, a Circuit Criminal Court in Bogota sentenced the former director of the Institute of Urban Development (the "IDU"), and two former officials of the IDU to 85 months in prison and a fine equivalent to approximately $10, as a result of the purported offenses of culpable peculation and unlawful negotiation of contracts, in the execution of the works of the aforementioned and declared the invalidity of any charges against two officials of ("ASOCRETO"). On August 30, 2013, as a result of an appeal by the IDU, the Superior Court of Bogota resolved, among other things: to reduce to 60 months the sentence, to impose a collective fine on those officials in Colombian pesos for an amount equivalent to approximately $37 million at the exchange rate as of June 30, 2016, and to revoke the nullity decreed in favor of ASOCRETO' officers, and ordered the first instance judge to issue a judgment concerning the guilt or innocence of such ASOCRETO'officers.

On January 21, 2015, the Circuit Criminal Court of Bogota declared the prescription of the criminal action initiated against the ASOCRETO officers. The judge accepted the arguments presented by CEMEX Colombia in respect that the accused officers were not public servants; therefore, declared the prescription of the criminal action since 2012. The decision was subject to appeal and was subsequently confirmed by the Criminal Chamber of the Superior Court of Bogota. As a result of the criminal action against the ASOCRETO officers being prescribed, also ceased the action against CEMEX Colombia in its condition of supposedly civil responsible third party.

In connection with these proceedings related with the premature damages of Transmilenio's public transport system, in which the costs of repair works have been calculated in an amount in Colombian pesos equivalent to approximately $34 million at the exchange rate as of June 30, 2016, an Administrative Court in Bogota issued a first instance resolution, considering most of the arguments raised in its defense by CEMEX Colombia, recognizing that the flowable fill (supplied by CEMEX Colombia) is not the cause of the purported damages, and that the aforementioned damages resulted from failures in planning, execution and supervision of the work. The first instance resolution was appealed; nonetheless, considering conditions precedent of the case, it would be difficult for the second instance judge to revoke the previous resolution.

Likewise, in related proceedings, the Administrative Tribunal of Cundinamarca declared the nullity of five class actions filed in connection with the aforementioned damages, and decided to proceed with the popular action filed by a citizen. To this class action are linked the IDU, the Mayor of Bogota, the builder, the controller and the suppliers of materials for this work.

CEMEX Colombia participated in this project solely and exclusively as a supplier of materials, which were received by the builder to satisfaction of the work, and no quality claims have been raised to the date of these financial statements. As of June 30, 2016, CEMEX Latam considers the likelihood of an adverse resolution to be remote; nonetheless, an unfavorable resolution could have an adverse effect on its results of operations, liquidity or financial position.

In connection with the construction of the new cement plant in the municipality of Maceo, Department of Antioquia, in Colombia (note 13), on August 28, 2012, CEMEX Colombia signed a memorandum of understanding ("MOU") with the entity CI CALIZAS S.A. for the transfer to CEMEX Colombia of the land, the mining title and the free zone for the construction of the new cement plant. Subsequent to the signing of the MOU, one of CI CALIZAS S.A.'s former partners (he had transferred his shares two years before signing the MOU) was linked to a legal process for expiration of ownership and, as a result of this proceeding, the Attorney General's Office (Fiscalia General de la Nación or the "Prosecutor"), among other measures, suspended CI CALIZAS S.A.'s rights to dispose of the assets offered to CEMEX Colombia. In order to protect its interests, CEMEX Colombia joined the expiration of ownership proceeding, requesting the inadmissibility of the measures that affected the transfer of full ownership rights of the related assets and the rights acquired pursuant to the MOU. Considering CEMEX Colombia's efforts, CEMEX Colombia signed with the Drugs National Department (Dirección Nacional de Estupefacientes), then depository of the affected assets which functions after its liquidation were assumed by the Administrator of Special Assets (Sociedad de Activos Especiales S.A.S.), a lease contract pursuant to which CEMEX Colombia is duly authorized to continue with the necessary works for the construction and operation of the cement plant, and consequently the lease protects all infrastructure works and investments already made by CEMEX Colombia. On May 2, 2016, the Prosecutor decided to deny the request for inadmissibility of the action of asset forfeiture affecting the land, the mining title and the free zone that conform the Maceo project and which are subject of the MOU signed with CI CALIZAS. The proceeding will extend over time (from two to four years). For the prosecutor it is necessary to collect evidence clearly demonstrating the origin of the resources used to acquire the property subject to expiration of ownership. The prosecutor expressed it is not yet clear the decoupling of CI CALIZAS partner, and on the contrary, considers there are indications of involvement of this former partner in the business of such entity, after his retirement in 2010.

CEMEX Colombia is confident that after all proceedings are exhausted. It would obtain from the Prosecutor a favorable resolution that would permit the transfer of the assets affected in the transaction with CI CALIZAS.

As of June 30, 2016, CEMEX Colombia has made investments of approximately $261 million in the new plant in Maceo. CEMEX Colombia considers that its investments in the development of the plant are protected by virtue of the lease contract. Nonetheless, if there is a final adverse resolution of the authority affecting the assets subject to the expiration of ownership proceeding, and if CEMEX Colombia exhausts all legal resources available against the adverse resolution, any such resolution could have a material adverse effect on the Company's results of operations, liquidity or financial condition.

The DIAN informed that considering that CEMEX Colombia has made the majority of the investments in its own name, CEMEX Colombia should proceed to transfer those investments to the entity Zona Franca Especial Cementera del Magdalena Medio S.A.S. ("ZOMAM"), and attest its status as shareholder of ZOMAM, in order to justify the investments made in the construction project. In the event of a failed attestation, the entity ZOMAM would incur in breach of its commitments, and therefore, the DIAN would be obliged to declare this situation and the loss of the special tax zone status of ZOMAM.

Considering the above, CEMEX Colombia through an extraordinary Board of Directors' meeting held on December 11, 2015, approved:

- i) concluding the acquisition of all shares of the entity ZOMAM, and
- ii) the transfer of assets from CEMEX Colombia to ZOMAM as an in-kind equity contribution in order to comply with the request of the DIAN.

In connection with the aforementioned, all legal documentation and accounting records were made in CEMEX Colombia and ZOMAM, and the DIAN was informed regarding the compliance with the requirements in order to keep ZOMAM's status of special tax zone.

• On July 30, 2008, the Panamanian Authority of Civil Aeronautics (Autoridad de Aeronáutica Civil de Panama or AAC) initially refused the application of Cemento Bayano, to build structures above the permitted height restriction applicable to certain areas surrounding the Calzada Larga Airport which affected the construction of the cement plant's second line. On October 14, 2008, as per Cemento Bayano's request for reconsideration, the AAC granted permission for the construction of the tallest building of the second line, under the following conditions: that (a) Cemento Bayano assumes any liability arising from any incident or accident caused by the construction of such building, and (b) there would be no further permissions for additional structures. In connection with the construction of the remaining 12 buildings of the second line of the plant, on March 13, 2009, the AAC issued an explanatory note stating that: (a) should an accident occur in the Calzada Larga Airport's perimeter, an investigation shall be conducted in order to determine the cause and further responsibility; and (b) there will be no further permissions for additional structures of the same height as the tallest structure already authorized.

As a result, additional permits may be obtained as long as the structures are lower than the tallest building, on a case by case analysis to be conducted by the authority. Cemento Bayano filed an authorization request for the construction of the project's 12 remaining structures. On September 11, 2009, the AAC issued a resolution authorizing 3 of the 12 remaining structures and denying permits to 9 additional structures above the permitted height restriction applicable to certain areas surrounding Calzada Large Airport. On September 16, 2009, Cemento Bayano requested the AAC to reconsider its denial. On May 20, 2010, the AAC issued a report stating that all vertical structures erected by Cemento Bayano complied with the applicable signaling and lighting requirements in order to receive the respective authorization; nonetheless. On July 17, 2015 was held meeting with the Legal Services of AAC in order to give impetus to proceedings pending approval, to this date waiting the resolution replenishment the expedient since it was stray. As of June 30, 2016, the AAC had not yet issued a ruling regarding the request to review the remaining 9 structures.

To this date, the risk has decreased substantially since the buildings have been built and are operating, and the likelihood of such buildings being closed down by the authorities is very low, but would be fully mitigated when Cemento Bayano obtains the approval of the authority, which is expected to be accomplish during this new Government administration. However, if adversely resolved, and after exhausting all available recourses, the Company cannot predict the resolutions that may be issued or whether such resolutions would have an adverse impact on its results of operations, liquidity or financial condition. Moreover, the Company is unable to assess with certainty the likelihood of any incident or accident occurring as a result of the aforementioned constructions, and the responsibility, if any, that would be allocated to Cemento Bayano, but if any major incident or accident were to occur and if Cemento Bayano were to be held liable, any responsibility that would be formally allocated to Cemento Bayano could have a material adverse impact on the results of operations, liquidity and financial condition of the Company.

In addition, as of June 30, 2016, the Company is involved in various legal proceedings of minor impact that have arisen in the ordinary course of business. These proceedings involve: 1) product warranty claims; 2) claims for environmental damages; 3) indemnity claims relating to acquisitions; and 4) other similar claims brought against us that have arisen in the ordinary course of business.

21) SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

In connection with the issuance in the secondary market of ordinary bonds maturing in July 2025 with an interest rate of 8.3% made by CEMEX Colombia made in July 2015 (note 15), based on the rules set forth in clause 4.10 of the offering prospectus of such ordinary bonds and considering that during the annual period from July 9, 2015 and July 8, 2016 the trading volume of the securities in the secondary market was less than Col$5,000 million, on July 12, 2016, CEMEX Colombia launched a tender offer to all bond holders at a price equal to 100% of the outstanding principal amount plus accrued and unpaid interest. The aforementioned tender offer was accepted by all bond holders on July 13, 2016.

The acquisition of the securities by CEMEX Colombia does not represent the cancellation of such securities according to the second paragraph of article 2 of the 964 Law of 2005.
