

Media Relations
Andrea Castro Velez
+57 317 429 5332
andrea.castro@cemex.com

Investor Relations
Pablo Gutiérrez
+57 (1) 603-9051
pabloantonio.gutierrez@cemex.com

INFORMS:

COLOMBIA, BOGOTA, D.C. APRIL 27, 2022. CEMEX LATAM HOLDINGS, S.A. ("CLH") (BVC: CLH) informs that today, its indirect subsidiary CEMEX Colombia S.A. ("CEMEX Colombia") communicated to the market that, in the civil responsibility process promoted by several companies that are owners of rice crops, the Constitutional Court notified today the rejection of the nullity request filed by CEMEX Colombia against the decision adopted by the same Constitutional Court, which was previously communicated to the market on October 1, 2021.

As background, on July 16, 2018, this lawsuit had been resolved in favor of CEMEX Colombia in an extraordinary appeal by the Supreme Court of Justice. Against that decision, the plaintiffs promoted an action of protection which was denied in first and second instance. However, the Constitutional Court, in a sentence review, ordered the previous judicial decisions to be annulled, returning the file to the Supreme Court of Justice, to issue a new sentence. In response to this decision outside of the normal course of the process, CEMEX Colombia had filed a nullity request of the aforementioned sentence, which was rejected. In response to this, CEMEX Colombia will continue to exercise all legal actions in defense of its interests in the Supreme Court of Justice, a court that by order of the Constitutional Court must review the decision issued in the cassation judgement. At this time, CEMEX Colombia cannot determine the effects of an adverse decision on its Financial Statements.

Note: Unofficial translation for information purposes only. The original document filed in Spanish is the official version, therefore in case of any discrepancy between the Spanish version and this version, the Spanish version shall prevail.