INFORMS:

BOGOTA, D.C., COLOMBIA. JUNE 3, 2022. CEMEX LATAM HOLDINGS, S.A. ("CLH") (BVC: CLH) informs that its indirect subsidiary CEMEX Colombia S.A. ("CEMEX Colombia") communicated to the market that today it was notified of the decision adopted by the Supreme Court of Justice, in compliance with the order issued by the Constitutional Court in the sentence communicated to the market in October 2021, within the civil responsibility process promoted in 1999 by several companies that own rice crops. In this new decision, the Supreme Court of Justice ordered CEMEX Colombia to pay the plaintiffs the total sum of EIGHTEEN THOUSAND NINE HUNDRED NINETY MILLION FOUR HUNDRED SEVENTY-FOUR THOUSAND FOUR HUNDRED TWENTY-ONE PESOS (COP $18,990,474,421) in February 2022 (approximately equivalent to US$5,017,324 at today's official TRM of $3,784.98), as compensation for damages suffered between 1981 and 1998.

Regarding what is informed today, it is important to highlight that CEMEX, S.A.B. of C.V. became the owner of CEMEX Colombia in 1996.

As background, as has been published to the market on previous occasions, this lawsuit had been resolved in favor of CEMEX Colombia in July 2018 in an extraordinary appeal by the Supreme Court of Justice, and against said decision, the plaintiffs filed a tutela action which was denied in first and second instance. However, the Constitutional Court, in a review ruling, ordered the previous judicial decisions to be annulled, returning the file to the Supreme Court of Justice, so that it could issue a new sentence.

To date, CEMEX Colombia is analyzing the appropriate legal actions.
