Remote attendance rules and instructions.

1. This card shall be valid for attendance in relation to the general meeting of shareholders of the Company to be held as a virtual-only meeting at 4 p.m. in Madrid, Spain, on 30 June 2023, at first call or, at second call, on the following day, 1 July 2023, at the same time in Madrid, Spain, with the attached agenda.
2. All holders of voting shares will be entitled to attend remotely and cast their vote in relation to the General Meeting. In order to exercise the attendance right, shareholders shall have their shares registered to their name, directly or through their direct depository, at Deceval, five (5) days before the date scheduled for the General Meeting to be held. This circumstance shall be taken into account in relation to any Company share purchase transactions carried out in the days preceding that date and, in particular, in relation to the procedures and deadlines required for registration and/or entry of such transactions provided for and/or managed by Deceval.
3. In order to guarantee the identity of those present, the proper exercise of their rights and that the meeting proceeds appropriately, shareholders must first register to be able to access the remote attendance platform on the day the General Meeting is held, provided that the identity of the shareholder or their proxy and communication security have been duly ensured, in accordance with the applicable laws. Therefore, they must submit proof of their identity, after publication of the notice and by twelve midnight on the third day preceding the day scheduled for the General Meeting to be held, in an email addressed to jga@cemexlatam.com enclosing their National Identity Document, Identity Card, Foreigner Identity Card or Passport, and the number of shares they hold enclosing the appropriate remote attendance card, a deposit certificate issued by Deceval or other valid proof accepted by the Company, and advise as to their choice of vote if they wish to do so by distance communications means through the remote attendance card.
4. Once the Company has verified the details provided by shareholders or their proxies, they will be sent an email to access the remote attendance platform. This access is personal and non-transferable. The Company reserves the right to ask shareholders or their proxies to provide such additional identification means as shall be deemed necessary to verify their identity and their status as a shareholder or proxy and to ensure they are genuinely attending the General Meeting remotely.

Annual General Meeting of Shareholders
June 2023

- 5. In order for shareholders or their proxies to be assured of secure remote access and be properly identified by the Company, shareholders or proxies wishing to attend the General Meeting remotely and who shall have first registered as referred to in the preceding paragraph by the deadline set for that purpose, shall access the remote attendance platform between 3 pm and 4 pm in Madrid, Spain, on 30 June 2023 (if the General Meeting is held at first call) or, as appropriate, between 3 pm and 4 pm in Madrid, Spain, on the following day, 1 July 2023 (if the General Meeting is held at second call). For the aforementioned reasons, no attendees will be allowed to sign in outside those times.
6. Shareholders or their proxies intending to use their rights to take the floor at the General Meeting shall declare their intention to do so when they sign in to the remote attendance platform using the relevant tool provided. Having declared their intention, shareholders or their proxies may set down in writing and submit their address, question or proposal until the chair of the General Meeting declares that the General Meeting has validly assembled. A remote attendee wishing their address to be recorded in the minutes of the General Meeting shall have to specify this in the wording submitted. Any requests for information or clarification submitted remotely may be answered orally during the General Meeting or in writing within seven days thereafter, subject to article 182 of the Companies Act.
7. Shareholders or their proxies may exercise their voting right during the course of the General Meeting in an email sent while it is under way addressed to jga@cemexlatam.com using the relevant remote attendance card, completed to show their choice of vote. In addition, where shareholders or their proxies change their voting decision with respect to what was submitted prior to the General Meeting by distance communication means, they shall so declare using the relevant tool provided after the chair of the General Meeting reads the proposal. The mechanism for a vote to be cast electronically provides proper assurances of the shareholder exercising the right to vote being properly identified and of electronic communication security. No votes received after the end of the General Meeting or the time thereafter specified by the chair of the General Meeting shall be accepted.
8. Where in relation to a given item on the attached Agenda the shareholder casting a vote fails to expressly mark any of the boxes provided (“for”, “against”, “abstention” or “blank vote”) in the “VOTING” section of this card, the shareholder shall be deemed to have voted for this Agenda item.
9. The presence at the General Meeting of a shareholder who shall have appointed a representative, previously voted remotely or conferred proxy, whatever the means used may be, shall render any such appointment, vote or proxy ineffective.

June 2023

10. Any email, sent for any of the purposes provided for herein, shall include the sending shareholder's signature issued under any standard allowing the shareholder's identity and the authenticity of the communication to be ensured.
11. This remote attendance card will only be considered valid by the Company once the Company has verified that such person is a shareholder checking the details as to share ownership and number given upon completing the card against the details available at Deceval.
12. In the event of the remote attendance card being completed by a corporate shareholder, the individual signing the same on behalf of that legal entity shall, in addition to the documents listed in paragraph 3 above, provide a copy of a proper power of attorney authorising the individual to represent the corporate shareholder, duly signed and valid for these purposes. Only powers of attorney drawn up in, or officially translated into, Spanish or English, shall be deemed valid.
13. The chair and secretary of the Company's Board of Directors or the chair and secretary of the General Meeting, forthwith upon the meeting assembling, and any persons authorised thereby, shall have broad-ranging powers to verify the identity of the shareholders and their proxies, check the title to and lawfulness of their rights and accept the validity of the attendance, proxy appointment and distance voting card or document or means proving the rights to attend or proxy.

Personal data protection. - Personal data (including image and voice) provided by shareholders and their proxies, if any, to the Company for the exercise or delegation of their rights to attend and vote at the General Meeting, or submitted or provided by banks and brokers and broker-dealers at which those shareholders' shares are deposited, through the entity in charge of book-entry registration, shall be processed by, and under the responsibility of (and included in databases belonging to) the Company to develop, control and manage the relationship with shareholders and to give notice of, hold and publicise the General Meeting and comply with its statutory obligations. Accordingly, the data shall be communicated to the Notary drawing up the Minutes of the General Meeting and may be shared with third parties in the exercise of the information right provided for by law or be publicly accessible to the extent included in documents available at the website www.cemexlatam.com or produced at the General Meeting, the (partial or full) outcome of which shall be publicised at the aforementioned website and may be the subject of an audiovisual recording. By attending the General Meeting, the attendee provides his/her consent for such recording and disclosure.

Processing of the data is necessary for the stated purposes and the lawful basis for processing is to manage the relationship with shareholders and comply with statutory obligations. The data shall be retained while that relationship remains in place and thereafter for a period of six (6) years only to be able to deal with any legal or contractual claims, unless a longer limitation period should exceptionally apply.

The rights of access, rectification, erasure and objection may be exercised on the terms provided for by law in a written communication sent to the Company's registered office, Calle Hernández de Tejada, no. 1, 28027, Madrid, Spain. In the event that the shareholder should include personal data with respect to other individuals on the attendance, proxy and distance voting card, the shareholder shall advise them of the wording contained in the preceding paragraphs and comply with such other requirements as may apply in order to properly provide the Company with the personal data, but the Company shall not be required to take any further action in terms of information or consent.
