1. Shareholders may exercise the right to remotely attend the General Meeting of Shareholders personally or by appointing another person, who need not be a shareholder, to be their proxy, subject to compliance with the requirements established by Law and in the Company's internal regulations.
2. All holders of voting shares will be entitled to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders, with the right to be heard and vote. In order to exercise the right to attend, shareholders shall have their shares registered to their name, directly or through their direct depository, at Deceval, five (5) days before the date scheduled for the General Meeting of Shareholders to be held. This circumstance shall be taken into account in relation to any Company share purchase transactions carried out in the days preceding that date and, in particular, in relation to the procedures and deadlines required for registration and/or entry of such transactions provided for and/or managed by Deceval.
3. This card shall be valid only for the General Meeting of Shareholders of the Company to be held as a virtual-only meeting at 4 p.m. in Madrid, Spain, on 30 June 2023, at first call or, at second call, on the following day, 1 July 2023, at the same time in Madrid, Spain, with the attached agenda.
4. Notwithstanding the provisions of the law, the appointment of proxy and/or representative for the General Meeting shall be made in writing or be sent by post or electronically or by any other distance communication means, provided that the shareholder's identity and communication security are duly assured, in accordance with the applicable statutory provisions. Where the appointment is made by post or electronically, it will only be deemed to be valid if made:
 - (a) by post, sending the Company: (i) this duly completed proxy or representative card and voting instructions, if any, or any other means proving appointment acceptable to the Company, with the shareholder's signature issued under any standard allowing the authenticity of the communication and identification of the shareholder making the appointment to be ensured, and (ii) the document proving ownership of the shares, issued to that end by Deceval or by the entity where the shares are deposited.

If the shareholder gives voting instructions, this card shall specify the choice of vote (for or against), an abstention or a blank vote with respect to each of the attached Agenda items. The documents shall be sent to the Company's registered office:

CEMEX LATAM HOLDINGS, S.A.

Attn.: Shareholder Relations Office

- (b) by email correspondence, sending an email to the Company's designated address ("jga@cemexlatam.com") (i) giving details of the proxy conferred and the identity of the shareholder attending by proxy, including the shareholder's signature issued under any standard allowing the authenticity of the communication and identification of the shareholder conferring proxy to be ensured, and (ii) the document proving ownership of the shares, issued to that end by Deceval or by the entity where the shares are deposited;
5. Additionally, in the case of corporate shareholders, the Company shall in addition to the documents listed in paragraph 4 above be provided with a photocopy of a proper power of attorney authorising the individual to represent the corporate shareholder. In this connection, only powers of attorney drawn up in, or officially translated into, Spanish or English, shall be deemed valid. In addition, the proxy shall take the original of the power of attorney to the General Meeting.
 6. Proxy conferred by any of the aforementioned distance communication means shall have to be received by the Company by twelve (12) midnight on the third day before the date scheduled for the General Meeting to be held if the General Meeting is held at first call (i.e., by 12 midnight in Madrid, Spain, on 28 June 2023) or if the General Meeting is held at second call (i.e., by 12 midnight in Madrid, Spain, on 29 June 2023), as the case may be.
 7. The chair and secretary of the Company's Board of Directors or the chair and secretary of the General Meeting, forthwith upon the meeting assembling, and any persons authorised thereby, shall have broad-ranging powers to verify the identity of the shareholders and their proxies, check the title to and lawfulness of their rights and accept the validity of the attendance, proxy appointment and distance voting card or document or means proving the rights to attend or proxy.
 8. A proxy is revocable at all times. The presence at the General Meeting of a shareholder who shall have appointed a proxy, either remotely or by having cast a vote remotely on a date after the date of the proxy, shall result in the proxy conferred being revoked.

9. Proxy solicitations by the Board of Directors or any of its members shall be governed by the following:
- (i) If the actual directors, the entities where the certificates are deposited or the entities in charge of book-entry registration issue a proxy solicitation for themselves or third parties and, in general, wherever there is a public solicitation, the document recording the power shall contain or attach the Agenda and a request for instructions to exercise the voting rights and a specification of how the proxy is to vote if no specific instructions are given.
 - (ii) Exceptionally, the proxy may vote differently where circumstances arise that were not known when the instructions were sent and there is a risk of detriment to the shareholder's interests. Where a vote is cast other than as instructed, the proxy shall immediately inform the shareholder in writing, explaining the reasons for the vote.
 - (iii) A solicitation shall be deemed to have been issued where a same person is proxy for more than three shareholders.
10. If proxy was validly given in accordance with the law and the provisions of the Regulations of the General Meeting of Shareholders but no voting instructions were included therein or there are doubts as to who is to be proxy or the scope of the proxy given, then, unless otherwise expressly directed by the shareholder, proxy shall be deemed: (i) to have been given to the chair of the Board of Directors; (ii) to refer to all items on the Agenda of the notice of the General Meeting; (iii) to have been given to vote for all the proposals submitted by the Board of Directors in relation to the items on the Agenda of the notice; and (iv) to also extend to any business not included on the agenda of the notice but which may be lawfully transacted at the General Meeting, with respect to which the proxy shall vote as the proxy shall deem best serves the shareholder's interests, within the framework of the company's interests.
11. The foregoing shall also apply to resolution proposals tabled in due course as provided for by Law and in the Company's Internal Regulations. Proxy conferred by any of the above-mentioned distance communication means shall have to be received by the Company by twelve (12) midnight on the third day preceding the date scheduled for the General Meeting to be held.
12. Before being appointed, a proxy shall provide the shareholder with detailed information as to the existence of any conflict of interest, in terms of the Companies Act. If the conflict should arise after the appointment and the shareholder conferring proxy is not advised of its potential existence, the proxy shall inform the shareholder immediately. In both cases, if no new specific voting instructions are received in respect of each of the items of business on which the proxy is to vote on the shareholder's behalf, the proxy shall refrain from voting.

13. Unless otherwise expressly directed by the shareholder, where the proxy has a conflict of interest, the shareholder shall be deemed to have appointed as proxy in that event, jointly and severally and successively, in the following order in the event that any of them should in turn have a conflict of interest: the chair of the General Meeting, the secretary to the General Meeting and the vice-secretary to the Board of Directors.
14. If the chair of the General Meeting should have a conflict of interest in voting any of the proposed resolutions referred to in the preceding paragraphs, proxy shall be deemed to have been conferred on the secretary to the General Meeting.
15. In completing, sending and/or submitting this card, the shareholder and his or her or its proxy expressly declare that they are acquainted with and accept the rules contained in paragraphs 9 to 13 above, and expressly agree to strictly observe the same, notwithstanding any statement in relation to the instructions referred to in paragraphs 10 and 13 above.
16. Financial intermediaries providing investment services may exercise the right to vote at the Company's General Meeting on behalf of their clients where they have been appointed their proxies. In such event, the intermediaries may cast a different vote, in compliance with different voting instructions. Financial intermediaries shall provide the Company, within five (5) days prior to the date scheduled for the General Meeting to be held, with a list giving the identity of each client, the number of shares with respect to which they are exercising the right to vote on their behalf, and the voting instructions to have been received by the intermediary. Financial intermediaries may delegate the vote to a third party designated by the client, but the number of delegations may not be limited, other than as established in the Company's Articles of Association.
17. This card will only be considered valid by the Company and therefore allow the shareholder's proxy to attend the General Meeting once the Company has verified that such person is a shareholder checking the details as to share ownership and number given upon completing the card against the details available at Deceval.
